Companies Throughout the Midcontinent Gather in Oklahoma City to Explore Cost-Saving Solutions and New Opportunities

Houston, Texas (October 31, 2016) – Seeking efficiency-focused strategies and opportunities in emerging plays like the STACK and SCOOP, hundreds of industry professionals packed the 2016 DUG Midcontinent conference and exhibition in Oklahoma City, OK, October 26-28. Conference attendees heard from 35 executive-level speakers in the event's targeted conference sessions and in the all-new Technology Showcase. And 59 exhibitors gave demonstrations of solutions helping producers cut costs and maximize output.

The speaker lineup featured leaders from the Midcontinent's most active E&Ps, including public and private producers like Continental Resources, Devon Energy, Marathon Oil, Chesapeake Energy, Jones Energy, Gastar Exploration, Alta Mesa Holdings, FourPoint Energy, and Cimarex Energy.

Conference sessions explored activity throughout the region's rapidly burgeoning oil and gas plays. Attendees also heard commodity price forecasts from top analysts and learned about the latest A&D deals.

The event's new Technology Showcase brought effective solutions to the exhibit floor with case studies and live demonstrations from leading companies like TETRA Technologies, Veolia, NOV, and Baker Hughes.

Mark your calendars – DUG Midcontinent will return to the Cox Convention Center in Oklahoma City September 19-21, 2017.
